

INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY POLICY

(Includes Equal Opportunity and Sexual Harassment)

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to highlight Ashby Primary School's commitment to making sure every member of our school community, regardless of their background or personal attributes, is treated with respect and dignity. Ashby Primary School strives to provide a safe, inclusive and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff. For staff, this policy should be read alongside the Department of Education and Training's Respectful Workplaces policies (including Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Workplace Bullying) as these whole of Department policies apply to all staff at Ashby Primary School.

POLICY

DEFINITION

Personal attribute: a personal characteristic that is protected by State or Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation. These include: race, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious belief or activity, political belief or activity, age, intersex status, physical features, pregnancy, carer and parental status, breastfeeding, marital or relationship status, lawful sexual activity, employment activity, industrial activity, expunged homosexual conviction or personal association with anyone who is identified with reference to any protected attribute.

Direct discrimination: unfavourable treatment because of a person's protected attribute.

Indirect discrimination: imposing an unreasonable requirement, condition or practice that disadvantages a person or group of people with a protected attribute.

Sexual harassment: unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature towards another person which could reasonably be expected to make that other person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated. It may be physical, verbal, visual or written.

Disability harassment: humiliating comments or actions about a person's disability.

Vilification: conduct that incites hatred towards or revulsion or severe ridicule of a person or group of people on the basis of their race or religion.

Victimisation: subjecting a person or threatening to subject them to detrimental treatment because they (or their associate) has made an allegation of discrimination or harassment on the basis of a protected attribute (or asserted their rights under relevant policies or law).

Inclusion and diversity

Ashby Primary School acknowledges and embraces the diversity of all stakeholders. The diversity breakdown for Ashby Primary School is as follows (as of Sept. 2019):

- 49.56% of students are male
- 50.44% of students are female
- 2.65% of students are Indigenous or Torres Strait Islander
- 4.42% of students have a disability

- 3.98% are non-English speaking
- 12.39% of students speak a language other than English
- 1.77% of students are refugees

Ashby Primary School is committed to creating a school community where all members are welcomed, accepted and treated equitably and with respect, regardless of their backgrounds or personal attributes. For example; race, language, religious beliefs, gender identity, disability or sexual orientation so that they can participate, achieve and thrive at school.

Ashby Primary School acknowledges and celebrates the diversity of backgrounds and experiences in our school community and we will not tolerate behaviours, language or practices that label, stereotype or demean others. At Ashby Primary School we value the human rights of every student and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

IMPLEMENTATION: -

Ashby Primary School will:

- Actively nurture and promote a culture where everyone is treated with respect and dignity;
- ensure that students are not discriminated against (directly or indirectly) and where necessary, are reasonably accommodated to participate in their education and school activities (eg schools sports, concerts, special days like Harmony Day) on the same basis as their peers;
- acknowledge and respond to the diverse needs, identities and strengths of all students;
- encourage empathy and fairness towards others;
- challenge stereotypes that promote prejudicial and biased behaviours and practices;
- contribute to positive learning, engagement and wellbeing outcomes for students;
- explicitly educate students to identify and report discriminatory behaviour; and
- respond to complaints and allegations appropriately and ensure that students are not victimised.

Ashby Primary School is committed to promoting inclusion and diversity and does so through a range of programs and initiatives, including but not limited to: Harmony Day, Pako Festa, beginning every assembly with the acknowledgement to Country, and displaying the Australian and Aboriginal Flag at assembly. Ashby Primary School additionally supports inclusion education through units of inquiry based on both the traditional and contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history and cultures.

Bullying, unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and other forms of inappropriate behaviour targeting individuals or groups because of their personal attributes will not be tolerated at Ashby Primary School. We will take appropriate measures, consistent with our Engagement and Wellbeing and Bullying Prevention policies, to respond to students who demonstrate these behaviours at our school.

Students who may have experienced or witnessed this type of behaviour are encouraged to speak up and let their teachers, parents or carers know about those behaviours to ensure that inappropriate behaviour can be addressed.

Reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities

Ashby Primary School is committed to making reasonable adjustments to accommodate students with disabilities. A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist students with disabilities to participate in their education on the same basis as their peers. Reasonable adjustments will be made for students with disabilities in consultation with the student, their parents or carers, their teachers and if appropriate, their treating practitioners. Our school may consult through Student Support Group processes and in other less formal ways. For more information about support available for students with disabilities and communicating with us in relation to a student's disability, please refer to our school's Engagement and Wellbeing Policy or contact Meg Bone, (03)5223 1291 Disabilities Coordinator for further information.
